ANDORRA
SKI IN A UNIQUE
COUNTRY
Andorra is a small independent state in the centre of the Pyrenees, between Spain and France. The mountains are high, the snow is plentiful and lasts all winter. Because Andorra faces the Mediterranean, our country is one of the snow destinations with the most days of sunshine.

Welcome to Andorra

We may be small, but nobody else has managed to concentrate the best and most modern ski resorts in the south of Europe into a 468 km² area, completing it with an unbeatable offer of leisure time, gastronomy, culture, shopping and so on. That’s why in Andorra, you will be skiing in a unique country.

Why are we so unique?

Because of the distribution of our ski resorts, the particular features of each one of them, the effort and passion with which all the professionals work so that you are always skiing in the best conditions. The attraction of the mountains will entice you to return. Because when you talk about skiing in Andorra, you can never get enough. You always want more!

Skiing in Andorra: the singular nature of unique mountains

Skiing in Andorra is one of the most vibrant experiences you can enjoy. A rational balance between the snow, mountains and unspoiled areas that perfectly combines with the entire complementary offer of leisure.
Grandvalira is much more than the best skiing: it is innovation, experience, freedom and fun! It is the largest ski resort in the south of Europe, with more than 210 skiable kilometres and a wide range of options for eating out, daytime and evening activities, ski schools and much more.

It is also the habitual setting for top-level international competitions. This season, it is the only event to include access to the Ordino Arcalís ski resort.

Grandvalira, a single pass, two ski resorts, 240 km of slopes and plenty of ways to enjoy the snow!

The guarantee of snow and fun on the most Alpine and exciting skiable domain in Andorra which all users of the Grandvalira pass can now access.

Ordino-Arcalís, known for offering the best quality and greatest amount of snow in the Pyrenees, has become part of the Grandvalira Resorts group.

It offers a unique mountain area in which families and expert skiers can enjoy themselves in complete freedom, without queues or crowds, in a safe and now more convenient atmosphere, thanks to the new Tristaina gondola lift.

With 30 km of marked slopes and more than 120 off-piste itineraries, it has become a worldwide reference, and the annual setting for the prestigious Freeride World Tour circuit.

The Ordino-Arcalís Ski and Snowboard School offers private and group classes for all levels and ages with the greatest level of individual attention. While parents are enjoying their day of freedom, their children will discover the magic of snow in the best company. Learning and fun are guaranteed.

For the very youngest children, we have a crèche service, a covered snow garden so that they can learn with all the facilities, new areas for beginners with direct access from the Tristaina gondola lift and the Agustina Family Park, a thematic circuit with tunnels, banking and obstacles with great surprises awaiting them and endless emotions.

There is also the Megaverda slope, the longest beginner slope in the Pyrenees, which is 8.5 km long, for the whole family to enjoy.

Flavours, textures and aromas of the mountain. Dishes that are 100% cooked in the ski resort using locally-sourced top-quality products. Home-made cooking with a touch of originality, sophisticated filled baguettes, all served up with exclusive views from panoramic terraces.

It is worthwhile discovering charming places such as La Borda de la Coma or El Refugi Les Portelles which, at an altitude of 2,550 metres, is the highest gourmet restaurant in Andorra.

If you want to enjoy a unique adventure, we recommend the fondue evening meal at La Borda restaurant, which you can enter on a giant sledge for 50 people, and later ski back down again in the moonlight.

We will take care of your transfer to the slopes in a customised, free way. If you have the Ordino-Arcalís or the Grandvalira pass and you are staying in Andorra, we collect you from the door of your hotel or tourist apartment and take you to the bottom of the Ordino-Arcalís ski slopes in one of our vans.

And when you’re tired of skiing, we take you back to the hotel. You just need to book this at the reception of your accommodation or send a WhatsApp message to +376 377 733 (before 21:00 the previous day).

Imagine hundreds of unspoiled hectares to be enjoyed off-piste, make your dream of doing heliskiing come true, go up in the mythical Creusons chairlift and ski in the setting where, every season, the best riders in the world dispute the Freeride World Tour. Discover more than 140 itineraries led by the guides of our prestigious Freeride School.

If what you enjoy is using snowshoes or ski touring, we can offer training and accompaniment services to suit your needs. Don’t miss the excursion to the Port de Rat stalagmite cave.

VALLNORD - PAL-ARINSAL

Loyal to variety

Vallnord-Pal Arinsal means ski & bike. The nearest ski resort to the centre of the country, with convenient access for all the family, is set in a magical pine forest. The only ski resort in the Pyrenees that holds one world cup in the winter and another one in the summer. It offers a wide range of family, social, sporting and gastronomic activities in convenient infrastructures in an ideal setting which can be accessed at any time of year.
A unique setting for learning at the same time as enjoying nature and having fun. It is characterised by its magical forests where, as well as downhill skiing, you can do alternative activities such as ski touring or excursions with snowshoes. In the sector, there are also a large number of activities organised for children and adults such as zip-lining and a rope park, among others.

At Arinsal, you can enjoy an incredible atmosphere and first-class services, with a very active après-ski offer at the foot of the slopes. This sector has an environment that is designed for couples, young people and families. Here, the Ski Mountaineering World Cup is held and there is the snowpark.

Two ski and snowboard schools where you can learn downhill skiing and snowboarding with classes for all levels, for people who wish to start out in the world of snow through to experts who wish to improve their technique and to get to know the ski resort in depth. You can also enjoy the experience of Snowplus, the very special school for young children.

In Pal, as well as in Arinsal, there are a large number of restaurants for gourmets. The cuisine is prepared using locally-sourced ingredients, and represents yet another attraction for visitors to our facilities. Don’t miss the Coll de la Botella building and evening meals in the high mountains.

Andorra World

Comapedrosa Andorra ISMF World Cup
- Vallnord-Pal – Arinsal
- 25 and 26 January
- The traditional Font Blanca race changes its name but maintains its essence. This year, the ISMF organisation has entrusted Vallnord – Pal-Arinsal to host one of the steepest tests on the calendar in the world of speed touring over two days.

Borrufa Trophy
- Ordino- Arcalís
- From 27 to 30 January
- This is one of the most important international mass start competitions in the youth area for four days, the best skiers aged between 11 and 16 compete in the giant, super giant, slalom and combined modalities. This year, as a novelty, it includes a team event (parallel slalom by nation).

Pal Skimo
- Vallnord-Pal
- January
- The charity race in Pal is one of the first ski touring dates in which runners participate in the event knowing that they are doing so to raise money for charities in Andorra.

Andorra Skimo
- Grandvalira - Grau Roig - Arcalís
- 22 and 23 February
- A long-distance ski touring crossing, in the form of a race for teams of two or three people, which owes its name to the high mountain places over two distances: Skimo 6 (at an altitude of 2,000 m from Naturlandia to Grau Roig) and Skimo 10 (from Grau Roig to Arcalís).

Freeride World Tour
- Ordino-Arcalís
- From the 28 February to 4 March
- Ordino-Arcalis has established itself as a permanent venue for the Freeride World Tour. The Ordino ski resort hosts one of the five world trials on the international circuit of reference, which brings together the best specialists in this modality.

Freeride Junior Tour (FJT)
- Ordino-Arcalis
- March
- A new trial on the world Freeride Junior Tour circuit to train young people from 14 to 17 years old. It is held on the same weekend as the Freeride World Tour to be able to share experiences with the professional riders. It is based on training and educating in practising freeride, in both its snowgliding as well as its snowboarding modalities.

Female skimo
- Vallnord-Pal – Arinsal
- March
- A race in which participants face three sporting modalities in a single trial: cross, cycling and ski touring. The event is held in La Massana and the finish line is on the slopes of Pal with a ski mount ascent.

Andorra is so much more

Fun, music and a great atmosphere
- After a day of skiing, the après-ski atmosphere moves to the various bars at the foot of the slopes where people enjoy a drink, listen to the best live music, have fun watching the sunset and the arrival of the evening.
- The après-ski is here to stay, and every year has more followers. A good way to spend time with your friends and family sharing the experiences of the day or enjoying a delicious dinner in a restaurant at the resort or in one of the country bordes.

Time to shop
- Andorra is a unique shopping destination. More than 1,500 shops and stores are concentrated to ensure that you find what you are looking after. Designer and luxury goods, fashion, jewellery, beauty, perfumes, pharmaceuticals or electronics can be found seven days a week.

Discover our culture
- Inquisitive visitors can discover fantastic cultural itineraries, museums that describe the customs and local traditions, or the rich Romanesque heritage that has been with us the last 1,000 years.
Enjoy the authentic mountain cuisine

- The "bordes" are traditional Pyrenean buildings made of stone and timber that in the past were used to store hay and farming tools. Nowadays most of them are cozy restaurants where you can enjoy authentic mountain cuisine such as "escudella" (a stew which is an excellent choice to fight the winter temperatures), "trinxat" a tasty mix of meat and vegetables blended and fried, mountain rice or a plate of snails. Customers can also opt for top-quality contemporary and creative cuisine.

Accommodation to dream

- Spending some days in Andorra is always an excellent choice. More than 300 tourist establishments that provide a total of almost 43,000 beds all over the country will guarantee it. Whatever your budget or nature you will find accommodation that suits you.

Time to relax

- The presence of thermal waters in Les Escaldes was already known in the ancient times, rich in sulphur and minerals. Today, thousands of visitors a year enjoy its beneficial effects in Caldea, Andorra’s thermal spa. The culture of water has taken deep roots, and many places have recently incorporated wellness areas into their services, some of which have a surface area of up to 5,000 m².

Caldea, the largest thermal spa in the south of Europe

- Caldea, the thermal spa in Andorra, was designed to enjoy a bath in thermal waters full of contrasts and the most innovative treatments. The building, with its unique architecture, is set in the middle of the city and yet surrounded by the mountains of Andorra.

Discover its spaces: the Termolúdic, the largest space in Caldea, offers a leisure-time experience in thermal waters for people over the age of five years. Likids is the exclusive spa for children aged between three and eight, where they can enjoy an introductory session of wellness given by qualified instructors. Inúu, the Adults Only spa in Caldea, invites you to rediscover your well-being and to enjoy the specialist treatments. Switch off from the world at Orígens, there are plenty of surprises awaiting you: the Aztec bath, the grapefruit bath in a Japanese garden, etc.

This winter, Caldea is opening a panoramic swimming pool with water games that stand out from the outdoor terrace and which includes a transparent section that goes over the river.

With the arrival of the good weather, discover the country all over again. The white countryside that captured you in the winter is now unrecognizable. But this doesn’t mean that has lost its charm. It’s time to take your backpack and to follow one of the many routes which take you, between mountain peaks and lakes, to places of extraordinary beauty.

In summer, the 468 km² of Andorra will take you to a world of nature in its purest state and of impressive countryside. You will find beautiful views, for example, in the three protected open spaces in the country: Les Valls del Comapedrosa Communal Natural Park, Sorteny Natural Park and the Vall del Madriu-Perafita-Claror. The latter has been declared World Heritage by UNESCO.

During the summer months, Andorra offers a wide range of open-air activities, shows, live music in the streets and squares, traditional festivals, town festivals and so on.

If you would like to receive information about all the sports activities in the country, you can download the Turisme Actiu Andorra app.

■ In the Pessons area of Grau Roig there are various activities, such as hiking, fishing and trips in 4 x 4 vehicles, while enjoying magnificent views. To finish off, you can taste the best high-altitude cuisine in a unique setting. Those who love the mountains can discover the Illa Refuges in the Madriu-Perafita-Claror Valley, which was declared World Heritage by UNESCO in 2004, in the natural landscape category.
Ordino-Arcalís becomes the only bicycle ascent to one of the end ports of the Tour de France and La Vuelta a España which is free from wheeled traffic. A paradise for cyclists. Visitors and trekkers can also enjoy a panoramic trip in the Tristaina gondola lift to Coma del Forat. Ordino-Arcalís is the ideal base camp for enjoying activities in nature, such as a trip to the Tristaina Lakes, or the experience of using the highest chairlift in the Principality which goes up to 2,429 m and admiring the views of Andorra, France and Spain, surrounded by mythical mountain peaks such as the Pico d’Estats (3,143 m).

You can rent electric bicycles, the Vivac Experience, enabling you to spend the night out in the open fully equipped with a guide, excursions in quads or amphibious vehicles, all of which can be complemented with a good meal on the sunny terrace of La Borda de la Coma restaurant, making this one of the best plans in Andorra to enjoy the summer.

Vallnord-Pal Arinsal converts the winter ski resort into a bike park —considered the fifth best one in the world according to Redbull— and a mountain park, offering all kinds of adventures for families. The venue for the seven world cups, 3 masters world championships and a UCI Mountain Bike World Cup Championship, this ski resort opens its packed summer calendar with the Maxivalanche in June, followed by the Mountain Bike World Cup the same month, the Girls Bike Weekend and the Mountain Passes in July, closing with the Skyrace Comapedrosa and the Catalan Mountain Bike Cup. Not forgetting the fact that every weekend there are get-togethers of all kinds.
